<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • assigned book notes • It is helpful. • The textbook was a great resource for when I didn't understand material in class. • The book confused me a lot during this course. I feel like I was relying mostly on in class discussions and lectures to learn the material. It was helpful for reference though.

26 - What were the instructor's greatest strengths?

Response Rate	6/15 (40%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • teaching in an understanding manner and explaining hard concepts well • Professor Junqueira did a fantastic job teaching this course; comparative politics is very hard to understand, and her greatest strength was breaking down the material so well that anyone could understand it. • She is very educated when it comes to the math aspect of Comparative Politics and the theory parts. • She showed that she cared about the students and challenged them in a positive way. • She is very knowledgeable and always willing to help students understand the content. She is always well prepared for class and is personable with students. I thoroughly enjoyed having her as a professor. The active learning sessions were extremely beneficial to understanding the content. • She is very knowledgeable in the subject and helps you get to the right answer in class.

27 - How do you feel the instructor could have improved the class?

Response Rate	4/15 (26.67%)
• n/a • N/A • Nothing really comes to mind. The set up in terms of class schedule was nice. • I think the content on the slides could have been cut down so that when we took notes we could focus on more on what she was saying. There were many times I abandoned taking notes all together because we were moving through them way too fast and I learn best from writing information down.

Response Rate	2/15 (13.33%)
• Thank you for being an amazing teacher; seriously, one of my favorite and most engaging classes at A-State!!! • I'm needing the political science minor to graduate with my multi-media journalism major. Some of the material has been more complex than I thought just because I jumped into this political science minor as a senior. Although, the course has turned out better than I expected and I like the environment. When you're in a class full of students who have political science as a major, you can feel like an outcast because they have more knowledge and experience on the topics discussed in class. Thank you for being a kind and understanding professor! I have so much respect for you and your profession!
