Student Comments:

- I found the learning environment fostered by the professor to be perfectly adequate, though I found most of the students in the class to be largely inattentive and passive, which might function as a potential confounder.
- I think the randomizer was a great idea to help everyone in class be engaged in discussions and read the weekly assigned papers.

The instructor's teaching methods contributed to my learning.

Std. Dev.	0.47
Variance	0.22

Student Comments:

- I think this professor focuses too heavily on assigned readings. More of the course work should be separated from the readings; readings can be used supplementarily. Additionally, the final exam has very little room for error and was weighted too heavily.

Student Comments:

- The attendance grade encouraged students to do the reading, though as stated before the particular class I was a part of seemed uniquely unmotivated.
